IX. Course Policies

General Policy: Specific Class Requirements

- This class will use a web course called TWEN. Please enroll in the web course ASAP. All assignments will be posted to TWEN and may not be available until after class on the date it is assigned. Please note that the syllabus is subject to change (and it will!). I will post all changes on TWEN.
- Blue links are active. By right clicking the link with your mouse and selecting "open hyperlink" you will be able to access the material.
- Some class days MAY be marked "independent research" or "independent writing." On some of those days, there may be no formal class meetings. We will, however, meet on some of those days. DO NOT ASSUME that because a class is labeled "independent" there will be no meeting that day. Announcements will be made throughout the semester as to meeting dates. It is your responsibility to attend all classes, and not knowing that we are meeting on a particular day, or planning other activities during class times, is NO EXCUSE!
- Assignments will be posted to the web course and may not be available until after class on the date it is assigned.

- Pay close attention to how and when the assignments are to be submitted. Some will be turned into my in-basket, located behind my secretary. Some will be emailed to me, and others will be uploaded onto TWEN. If there are any questions, please refer to the assignment itself, or ask me.
- I gladly accept questions and concerns via e-mail, with certain requirements and understandings. Any e-mailed question must contain the steps you have taken to first address the answer to your question on your own. For instance, you must include the chapter in the textbook, the page of the PowerPoint, or the Bluebook rule you consulted. Additionally, any email addressed to me should contain proper spelling and grammar and should be written in a manner in which you would address your senior partner. I try my best to respond to all emails within 24 hours if sent during the week (48 hours if sent on the weekend), but sometimes other matters intervene that prevent me from responding as quickly as I would like. I appreciate your patience and understanding.
- Class Handouts: You will receive numerous handouts and supplemental readings during class. This material will not only be useful to you throughout the semester and your ongoing legal education, but it will be important to review these materials in preparation for your major assignments. Furthermore, anything distributed in class, discussed in class, or assigned as reading is fair territory for quizzes. You should keep all of these materials in one binder or large folder.
- At my discretion, throughout the semester, I will administer quizzes that may be unannounced. If you need special accommodations, please be sure to contact Student Services at (954) 262-6126 as soon as possible.

Attendance Policy:

Regular attendance is required in all courses.

This course follows the attendance policies detailed in the Code of Academic Regulations available at:

<https://intranet.law.nova.edu/intranet/students/student-services/documents/CodeOfAcademicRegulationMay2>

The maximum number of absences allowed before a student receives an F for excessive absences in this course is 4.

All students are expected to attend class and contribute to class discussion. I will call upon students in order to move along the discussion, but I prefer an interested and engaged crowd!

I will take attendance each class. All students are expected to attend all classes and fully participate in the classroom discussion. An attendance sheet will be circulated each class for your signature - it is your responsibility to sign the attendance sheet as proof of classroom attendance. Signing the attendance sheet indicates you are present for the entire class. If you leave class early or arrive late, you must indicate the time you are actually present for class.

Credit Hour Requirements:

Out-of-Classroom Expectations: Students are expected to read all assigned materials and be prepared for all classes. As set forth in ABA Standard 310, students should spend a minimum of two hours of out-of-class preparation for every in-class hour in accordance with the Code of Academic Regulations available at:

https://www.law.nova.edu/about/documents/Code_of_Academic_Regulations.pdf

In this 3-credit instructional offering, there are 2250 required in-classroom minutes of direct faculty supervised instruction. You are required to spend at least 5400 out-of-classroom minutes on class preparation for a total of at least 7650 minutes (127.5 hours) on this course.

X. University Policies

Students should visit <http://www.nova.edu/academic-affairs/nsu-syllabus-policy.html> to access additional required college-wide policies and https://www.law.nova.edu/about/documents/Code_of_Academic_Regulations.pdf for policies specific to the College of Law. It is your responsibility to access and carefully read these policies to ensure you are fully informed. As a student in this class, you are obligated to follow these policies in addition to the policies established by your instructor.

The following policies are described on these websites:

- Academic misconduct
- Last day to withdraw
- Email policy
- Student course evaluations

- Student responsibility to register
- Student responsibility for course prerequisites
- Class Preparation
- Graduation Requirements, etc.

Additional Academic Resources: Nova Southeastern University offers a variety of resources that may aid in student success. Among these resources is:

Accommodations for students with documented disabilities. For more information about ADA policy, services, and procedures, students may call the Office of Student Disability Services at 954-262-7185 or visit <http://www.nova.edu/disabilityservices>.
