Title: Incorporating Class Actions into your Practice

Course Summary:

This particular seminar is designed to educate attorneys about how to incorporate Class Actions into their practice with a general overview of Class Action procedure, a general overview of pleading and Class Action certification requirements, and a discussion about the types of cases and issues that might make viable Class Actions.

The format calls for a presentation by 2 experienced Class Action attorneys and question and answer session. The presenters are Michael J. Pascucci, Esquire and Joshua H. Eggnatz, Esquire of Eggnatz | Pascucci.

The seminar will be presented live, video recorded, and simulcast.

Michael J. Pascucci, obtained his juris doctorate from Nova Southeastern University in 2008. Mike's Class Action practice focuses on obtaining justice for consumers who have suffered financial harm as a result of deceptive or unfair corporate behavior. He represents consumers in a variety of matters including false advertisement, improper product labeling, employment matters, violations of the Fair Credit Reporting Act (FCRA), violations of the Telephone Consumer Protection Act (FTCPA), violations of the Fair and Accurate Credit Transactions Act (FACTA), violations of the Florida Deceptive and Unfair Trade Practices Act (FDUTPA), data breaches, and other consumer protection related matters. Mike has been appointed as Class Counsel by several Courts throughout the country in a number of high profile, nationwide Class Actions and has helped consumers recover millions of dollars.

Joshua H. Eggnatz obtained his juris doctorate from Nova Southeastern University in 2009. Josh's Class Action practice focuses on obtaining justice for consumers who have suffered financial harm due to unfair, false, deceptive, and/or misleading business practices. He represents consumers nationwide in a variety of fields, including but not limited to food and dietary supplement litigation, actions brought pursuant to the Telephone Consumer Protection Act, data breaches, and other consumer protection related matters. Josh has been appointed as Class Counsel by several Courts throughout the country in a number of high profile, nationwide Class Actions and has helped consumers recover millions of dollars.
