12. Section 4.5 of the Code of Academic Regulations provides that:

For a petition for reinstatement to be granted by the Student Services Committee, the petition must demonstrate that (a) the student's poor academic performance was a result of extenuating circumstances outside of the student's control (such as serious illness, unusual hardship, or qualitatively similar circumstances), (b) the extenuating circumstances that caused the student's poor academic performance have been fully resolved and no longer exist, and (c) given one more semester, the student will be able to attain (and maintain thereafter) the requisite GPA.

To help the SAC decide your petition, please answer the following three questions (using as much space as necessary). Note: Complete candor and truthfulness is expected and the SSC reserves the right to verify each and every statement.

A) What extenuating circumstances outside your control caused your poor academic performance? Note: Generally speaking, the SSC interprets “extenuating circumstances” as circumstances that you could not reasonably anticipate, avoid, or mitigate.

B) Have the extenuating circumstances identified above been resolved so that they no longer exist? Please check one of the following:

_____ Yes

_____ No

If yes, please describe how they have been resolved and why they are unlikely to recur in the future.

C) Assuming you are reinstated, what GPA will you need to earn next semester to avoid future dismissal? (Note: Students must attain a cumulative grade point average of a 2.00 or above after their first semester of law school in order to avoid dismissal. However, you should check Section 4 of the Code of Academic Regulations and with Student Servicers to determine exactly what you will need.): _____

13. Is there anything else you would like the SSC to know or consider about your circumstances?

You may submit any relevant documentation that supports your petition (e.g., medical evaluations, diagnostic reports, letters of recommendation, etc.). However, attaching documentation that is not directly relevant to your petition is extremely discouraged.

The foregoing information is true and correct.
