Candidate for U.S. House of Representatives, 2016 Democratic Primary, Florida's 23rd Congressional District

Challenged entrenched incumbent representative, then chair of Democratic National Committee.

- Raised nearly $3.8 million in 8 months from more than 209,000 individual online donations, then the highest percentage ever raised in small online donations (76% of donations of $200 or less) for any campaign for federal office in the history of U.S. elections.
- Operated 4 field offices, and deployed more than 150 field organizers, canvassers, and volunteers knocking on 12,000 doors a week.
- Social media campaign peaked at over 100,000 Facebook and 50,000 Twitter followers.
- Lost by several thousand votes, according to official election results that were deemed mathematically impossible by national experts in computational science. Filed public records lawsuit to inspect ballots, which led to discovery that the Broward Supervisor of Elections illegally destroyed all ballots cast. Florida's 17th Judicial Circuit granted us summary judgment, but relief sought was destroyed with the ballots.

No Party Affiliation candidate, 2018 General Election, FL-23 CD, election again marked by mathematically impossible election results and systematic failures in the chain-of-custody for both the electronic voting machines and paper ballots cast.

Progress For All, Hollywood, Florida
Chairman, 2016-2021

Founder and chair of non-profit community advocacy group, raised hundreds of thousands of dollars, lobbied state and federal government on wide range of issues, researched and published dozens of policy statements, and helped fund the establishment of a People's Advocacy Center in Tallahassee to provide a physical space for training and support for stakeholders advocating for social and economic justice in communities throughout Florida.
