

CAMILLE L. WORSNOP, ESQ.

Suite 503

305 South Andrews Avenue

Ft. Lauderdale, Florida 33301

(954) 525-3463

BAR ADMISSION: Admitted to the Florida Bar, Fall 1993

EDUCATION:

University of Florida College of Law, Gainesville, Florida

LL.M. in Federal Taxation, August 1994

Nova University, Shepard Broad Law Center, Fort Lauderdale, Florida

Juris Doctor, May 1993

Dickinson College, Carlisle, Pennsylvania

B.S. Geology, May 1986

ACTIVITIES AND HONORS:

-Publication: Camille L. Worsnop, Comment, Seebol v. Faire: Expressly Unconstitutional, 16 Nova L. Rev. 983 (1992).

-Nova University Law Review: Staff Member, Sept. 1991 - May 1993

-Nova University Dean's List: Spring 1991

-Nova University Moot Court Society Member: Spring 1991 - May 1993

-Nova University Book Awards: Wills & Trusts, Appellate Practice

-Phi Delta Phi Legal Honor Fraternity: Active Life Member

EXPERIENCE:

Law Offices of Camille L. Worsnop, P.A.

Oct. 1994 - Present. Civil practice concentrating in the areas of Corporate Law, Wills, Trusts and Estates.

NovaSoutheastern University, Shepard Broad Law Center

August 1998 - Present. Adjunct Professor. Teaching courses in the areas of Corporate Taxation and Trusts.

Florida Attorney General's Office -Civil Litigation Division

Jan. 1993 - April 1993. Certified legal intern in Federal and State Courts. Areas of concentration: Bankruptcy, Probate, Civil litigation. Conduct hearings, and depositions. Draft motions, answers, stipulations, interrogatories, memoranda, briefs, and orders.

Nova University, Shepard Broad Law Center, Goodwin Fellowship

Aug. 1992 - April 1993. Clerk for Professor Donna Litman. Responsible for research, and writing for publications in the area of Taxation, Trusts & Estates, Bankruptcy.

17th Judicial Circuit Court, Broward County Courthouse

May 1992 - Aug. 1992. Awarded stipend by the Florida Bar. Judicial Clerk for The Honorable Chief Judge Dale Ross, The Honorable Patricia Englander-Henning and The Honorable Arthur J. Franza.