CURRENT POSITION

Aug. 2016 – Present NOVA SOUTHEASTERN UNIVERSITY
SHEPARD BROAD COLLEGE OF LAW
Fort Lauderdale, Florida

Critical Skills Instructor: Teach law students the skills needed to effectively participate in class, manage time, prepare coursework, and study for exams. Special emphasis is placed on teaching critical reading, writing, and thinking skills essential to excel in law school and succeed in the practice of law. Additionally, assist students as they prepare for the bar exam by providing supplemental support as a coach in the Florida Bar Auxiliary Program (FBAP). The FBAP coaches work with recent graduates to direct and guide them on how to prepare for and take the bar exam with emphasis on practicing multiple-choice questions, writing essays, staying on track, and monitoring progress.

Jan. 2002 - Present NOVA SOUTHEASTERN UNIVERSITY
SHEPARD BROAD COLLEGE OF LAW
Fort Lauderdale, Florida

Adjunct Professor of Law: Classes taught include: Legal Skills and Values III and IV; Civil Pretrial Practice; Client Interviewing and Counseling; Collaborative Family Law Workshop.

Nov. 2011 – Aug. 2016: NOVA SOUTHEASTERN UNIVERSITY
Fort Lauderdale, Florida

Director of Alumni Relations: Senior Administration position. Work with the Dean, Development team, Administration, Staff, and Faculty to provide Law Alumni with opportunities to give time talent, and treasure and engage with each other, and with law students, to achieve the mission of the College of Law

Responsibilities and Accomplishments:

Manage Law Alumni Association Board of Directors (LAABOD), a volunteer advisory board, through quarterly meetings and bi-monthly committee conference calls to create relevant programs for alumni and students and raise money for scholarships and other initiatives at NSU Law

- Raised almost $12,000 from Board members since 2013 by implementing annual donor program
- Create and lead Annual Board Retreat (2012-Present) to establish FY goals for alumni relations

- Encourage LAABOD to become ambassadors for NSU Law in the community and among peers
- Identify and inspire fellow alumni to make contributions by creating programs to assist alumni in their professional development, encourage donations, and help current law students transition into practice

Programs and Events: Develop and produce programs and events for law alumni:

- Continuing Legal Education (CLE) Seminars
- Networking events
- Holiday Receptions to meet other NSU Alumni
- Mentoring current NSU Law students
- Coaching NSU Law trial competition teams
- Engage with NSU Law student organizations to develop the students' professional interests

Law Center Plus: Continuing Your Legal Education Seminar Series Created this monthly seminar series in 2014 and launched it in 2015. Responsibilities and accomplishments of Law Center Plus include:

- Create, direct, and produce CLE seminars for law alumni, lawyers in the community, and NSU Law students to teach practice skills to lawyers
- CLE seminars are produced in three formats: live, broadcast via webinar to Law Alumni worldwide, and video recorded for NSU Law students and alumni.

NSU Law Mentoring Program Redesigned the program in spring 2015 and launched it in fall 2015 to help NSU Law students prepare to transition from law student to law practitioner:

- Developed learning outcomes for Mentees and Participation Agreements for Mentees and Mentors to ensure program goals are achieved
- Created innovative "group mentoring" model by classifying Mentors and Mentees into 8 practice area groups (instead of 1:1 pairing) according to their interests
- Created suggested activities list by group to encourage further Mentor-Mentee group meetings so Mentees could "shadow" Mentors in court, at the office, or at other professional activities and learn skills not traditionally taught in law school.
- Created private LinkedIn page for Mentors and Mentees to communicate and share knowledge and support
- Created, produced and directed three in-person Mentoring Program breakfast meetings for the 2015-2016 academic year to enable Mentors and Mentees to meet in person and work in teams to achieve the program's learning outcomes for the Mentees:
 - October 2015: Guest speaker taught communication skills
 - November 2015: Guest speaker taught law office management skills and rainmaking concepts
 - March 2016: Guest speakers addressed goal-setting for new attorneys and how to develop a plan to transition from school to practice
- Created all marketing and publicity for Mentoring Program
- Personally mentored several law students

Law Alumni Chapters: Created, developed and managed regional Law Alumni Chapters in Florida since 2012 to engage law alumni in distant places by providing learning and networking opportunities.

- Collaborated with NSU Alumni Association (NSUAA at University level) to bring programs to law alumni in other states for national level programming
- Helped NSUAA develop methodology for tracking alumni metrics and test the system before launching it

Communications with Law Alumni, Faculty, and Students – In 2011, created first monthly e-newsletter for law alumni (Alumni Connections) to inform, engage and educate law alumni worldwide.

- Write, edit and produce monthly Alumni Connections newsletter, which has an open rate of ~20% or higher
- Alumni Connections newsletter is a communication tool to educate law alumni about NSU Law and the University, encourage donations and participation, announce law alumni achievements, and achievements of law faculty, and law students
- Alumni Connections newsletter contains invitations to law alumni to connect with each other, with students, and with the community both in South Florida and in other locations for learning, collaborating, and networking purposes.
- Created Student Connections in 2015, the first monthly NSU Law student e-newsletter
 - Write, edit and produce newsletter, which has ~45% open rate or higher among law students
 - Newsletter educates law students about: NSU Law, programs, and opportunities specifically for their benefit
 - Highlights student accomplishments and connects the students with the University and community for service and learning opportunities
 - Promotes Class Gift donor program
- Since 2011 and 2015 respectively, continue to write, edit and produce Alumni Connections and Student Connections
 - Reaches over 8,000 law alumni locally and worldwide
 - Reaches 800 current law students
 - Engages law faculty with law alumni and law students

Marketing and Communications: Coordinate all law alumni marketing efforts by working closely with Director of Marketing Communications for publicity at the College of Law, across the University, and on all social media outlets to promote news and events for and about law alumni and law students

Data Management and Banner: By collaborating with NSU Advancement and Community Relations (ACR), created a better data management system to update Banner database for all law alumni

- Used public records requests and online resources to locate law alumni and update their information and contact information in Banner
- Developed policies and procedures for keeping law alumni database updated
- Worked with ACR and NSU Tech/OIIT to
 - create automatic data upload to Banner (via custom script)

- Link Bar Number and N Number to ascertain identity match (especially helpful if alumnus changes name)
- Increased communication with thousands of alumni through better data management, exponentially increasing alumni communications and engagement since 2011
- Created a system to identify and code in Banner, the law alumni (1977 to present) who participated in co-curricular and/or affinity groups by using sources such as:
 - Internet research, yearbooks, graduation programs, and other publications
 - Asked ACR to create Banner codes to identify law alumni by affinity groups
 - Use data from affinity group coding to target programming and encourage donations of time and talent to help NSU Law achieve its mission and help law students learn and achieve success in school and in careers

Personnel and Budget Management: Train, manage and develop department assistant and student assistants and develop budget policies and procedures:

- Establish goals and logistics to manage work flow
- Manage budget and other resources
- Seek sponsors for alumni activities and events
- Create logistics for producing and directing successful events for law alumni and law students

Fundraising:

- Created Annual Class Gift Program “Paving the Way for Scholarships” (2014-present) specifically aimed at law student donors
 - Raised almost $12,000 for scholarships since 2014
- Obtained 100% annual donations among the Law Alumni Board of Directors since 2013 to help fund scholarships
- Seek donations from law students and law alumni through various in-person contacts to increase:
 - Student scholarship funds
 - Specifically increase the Law Alumni Association Endowed Scholarship Fund, which awards two annual scholarships to law students
 - Seek individual donations up to $50,000 via one-on-one communications
 - Identify and connect major donor prospects with Development Officer ($50,000+)
 - Join 1964 Society (planned giving) and Presidents Associates

Special Programs: Continued existing special programs and created new special programs for NSU Law alumni and faculty to work together and enhance NSU Law’s profile

- Seminars and Symposia –create, produce and direct, or support the following:
 - Over 80 programs for law alumni and law students since 2011
 - Annual Environmental Law Symposium
