Dual-Degree Alums Excelling at Distinguished Global Law Firms

Diego Pol, a dual-degree graduate of the University of Barcelona '09 and NSU Law '11, is a senior associate at the Baker & McKenzie office in Barcelona. Baker & McKenzie is a premier global law firm with 77 offices around the world.

Diego advises international clients regarding acquisitions and joint ventures and domestic clients regarding corporate compliance, trade sanctions, and export controls. He also teaches Corporate Law at the University of Barcelona and Introduction to Common Law in the International Business Masters program at ESADE Law School in Barcelona.

Ludek Chvosta, a dual degree graduate of Charles University-Prague '09 and NSU Law '10, is an associate in the Prague office of White & Case and a member of their Capital Markets and Banking & Financial Restructuring practice groups.

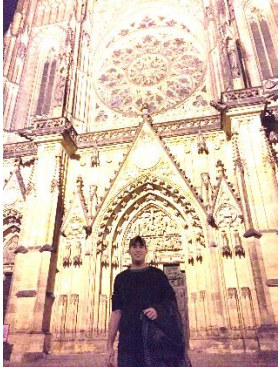

White & Case has 38 offices in 26 countries located in five continents. Ludek advises foreign and domestic clients on legal issues regarding capital markets, banking and finance, insolvency, and commercial litigation topics. He is a former President of the Common Law Society in Prague and has served as a presiding panel judge in the Jessup International Moot Court.

Italian Dual-Degree Grads Join Miami Law Firm

Alberto Polimeni, a dual-degree graduate of Roma Tre Law '12 and NSU Law '13, and Fabio Giallanza, a dual-degree graduate of Roma Tre Law '12 and NSU Law '14, have both joined Tosolini, Lamura, Rasile & Toniutti in Miami. In addition to their Miami office, this Italian-based law firm has offices in New York, Los Angeles, Rome, and Milan. Alberto currently is focused on commercial litigation and transactions, while Fabio is focusing on immigration and commercial transactions. Both Alberto and Fabio represent foreign and domestic clients.

NSU Law Students Begin Dual Degree LLM Courses in Prague

Samantha Saccucci, Jeffrey Schneider (pictured left), and Linda Schultz currently are spending their 3L Fall semester taking LLM classes at Charles University in Prague. All three students are enrolled in the Law and Business in the Czech Republic and Central Europe track and will take courses such as EU Business and Commercial Law, Fundamentals of Private Law, Private International Law and International Business Transactions. Upon successful completion of the semester, the students will have the opportunity to finish the LLM degree after they graduate from NSU Law by taking an extra semester of classes in Prague and completing a thesis.
