PRO BONO HONOR PROGRAM HANDBOOK

INTRODUCTION

The American Bar Association encourages all lawyers to contribute at least fifty hours of pro bono legal service per year. Due to limited funded legal services, pro bono has become an essential part of ensuring access to justice for the indigent and underrepresented. NSU Shepard Broad College of Law is committed to instilling an ethic of pro bono service in its graduates, and it is our hope that by giving back to the community, our graduates will develop a lifelong commitment to using their education and skills to contribute to the public good.

PRO BONO HONOR PROGRAM

Established in 1996, the Public Interest Law Center develops, administers, and publicizes pro bono opportunities for students while responding to the volunteer needs of community groups and other outside organizations. The Public Interest Law Center administers pro bono projects, develops a variety of pro bono opportunities throughout the academic year, and supports winter and spring break pro bono projects. The Public Interest Law Center, through email alerts, informationals, speakers, and recognition and awards programs encourages every student to participate in pro bono while in law school.

The NSU Shepard Broad College of Law's Pro Bono Honor Program is a voluntary program that provides recognition to students who have completed a minimum of fifty (50) hours of pro bono service to the community while enrolled in law school. Students are recognized in three levels of distinction:

- Bronze – 50 to 124 hours;
- Silver – 125 to 299 hours; and
- Gold – 300+ hours.

Students will be recognized for their commitment to pro bono with an awards certificate, by wearing a gold cord at graduation, and being recognized at an honors program.

WHAT IS PRO BONO?

Pro bono comes from the Latin term pro bono pulico which means 'for the public good'. Pro Bono work is done in the public sector, on a volunteer basis, to provide legal assistance to low-income and/or underrepresented individuals and communities.

For purposes of NSU Shepard Broad College of Law's Pro Bono Honor Program, students will need to complete legal pro bono hours as defined below, or participate in a Public Interest Law Center sponsored community event. Students may begin participating in the Pro Bono Honor Program after completing their first semester of law school. However, most students begin participating during the summer after their first year.

Legal pro bono is:

1. Legal or law-related in nature;
2. Unpaid, not part of the clinic/field placement program required hours, receiving a stipend, or getting paid;
3. With a non-profit organization, governmental agency, or licensed attorney doing pro bono work on behalf of the disenfranchised and/or under-represented and that is approved by the Director of Public Interest Programs prior to the beginning of any work;
4. Under the supervision of a licensed attorney or a member of the law school faculty/staff; and
5. Designed in some way to directly or indirectly address the legal needs of low income clients, the traditionally under-represented groups, or organizations devoted to universal issues such as the preservation of the environment and the elimination of all forms of discrimination.

1. Legal or law-related in nature

Work for an organization, program, or individual that as a substantial part of its activities delivers legal services or performs other law-related work is considered legal pro bono work.

2. Unpaid, not part of the clinic/field placement program required hours or receiving a stipend

Students can receive legal pro bono credit for time spent at a legal organization as long as they are not receiving credit for participation in the clinic/field placement program, receiving a stipend, or getting paid. Students who complete hours above and beyond the time required for the clinic/field placement commitment (40 hours per week for full time clinics/field placements OR 20 hours per week for the part-time AIDD, Children and Family, and Veterans Clinics OR 15 hours per week for the part-time Civil Field Placement or Dispute Resolution OR any hours completed over the 110 requirement for the Judicial Field Placement) can use those hours towards the Pro Bono Honor Program in the same semester so long as the placement would otherwise qualify for the Pro Bono Honor Program. To submit hours above and beyond the clinic/field placement commitment students will need to complete the Pro Bono Honor Program Timesheet, ask your Faculty Director to sign and certify to the pro bono hours (please note, it is up to the Faculty Director's discretion to sign and certify the pro bono hours), and submit the form along with the Evaluation Form to the Public Interest Law Center. Students may also receive pro bono credit for hours spent at a judicial placement.

3. With a non-profit organization, governmental agency, or licensed attorney doing pro bono work on behalf of the disenfranchised and/or under-represented and that is approved by the Director of Public Interest Programs prior to the beginning of any work;

Work in a private law firm, even if unpaid, will not qualify unless the work is performed exclusively on behalf of an indigent client or a public interest organization and is represented on a pro bono basis by the licensed attorney. Prior approval by the Director of Public Interest is necessary before working with a private attorney on a pro bono case. Students must fill out the Pro Bono Project Request Form for pre-approval, see Appendix.

4. Under the supervision of a licensed attorney or a member of the law school faculty/staff

All students' work must be supervised by a licensed attorney at the legal non-profit organization, governmental agency, law firm, or law school.

5. Designed in some way to directly or indirectly address the legal needs of low income clients, the traditionally under-represented groups, or organizations devoted to universal issues such as the preservation of the environment and the elimination of all forms of discrimination.

Note: Time spent commuting to and from a placement site does not qualify for pro bono credit. However, time spent in training at a placement site may be counted toward the pro bono requirement, as long as it does not exceed twenty percent (20%) of the hours spent at that particular placement. For example, if a student spends ten (10) hours working at a particular organization the student will only be given credit for two (2) hours of time spent in training.

HOW TO PARTICIPATE

To participate in the NSU Shepard Broad College of Law's Pro Bono Honor Program, students must:

1. Be in good academic standing;
2. Select and secure a pro bono position with an approved pro bono placement see Appendix, or complete the Pro Bono Project Request Form and receive approval from the Director of Public Interest Programs prior to the start of the project; and
3. Complete and turn in Pro Bono Honor Program Timesheet and Pro Bono Honor Program Evaluation Form no later than the semester after completing the pro bono service.

PRO BONO PLACEMENT

The Appendix section lists all pre-approved pro bono placements where students can complete hours for the Pro Bono Honor Program. A student may satisfy the Pro Bono Honor Program threshold by completing one fifty (50) hour project at a single placement site OR by combining different projects at multiple placement sites.

In addition to participating at pre-approved pro bono placement sites, students are encouraged to investigate and submit for approval opportunities which meet their own interests. Students must submit the Pro Bono Project Request Form in order for such opportunities to be counted for pro bono. The opportunities must be approved by the Director of Public Interest Programs prior to the student beginning the work. This includes work for a private attorney doing pro bono work, any non-profit organization, or any governmental agency not listed in the appendix section.

REPORTING PRO BONO HOURS

Students must submit all completed forms and substantiating documentation regarding the completion of their pro bono hours no later than the semester after completing the pro bono service. All forms should be submitted to the Public Interest Law Center. Students should also keep a copy of all submitted forms for their own record.

New York Bar Pro Bono Admission Requirement

All applicants for admission by examination to the New York Bar must perform 50 hours of law-related pro bono service prior to filing their application. For more information about the New York Bar Pro Bono Admission Requirement please visit: <http://www.nycourts.gov/attorneys/probono/baradmissionreqs.shtml>. Please keep in mind pro bono hours that satisfy the NSU Shepard Broad College of Law's Pro Bono Honor Program may/may not satisfy the New York Bar Pro Bono Admission Requirement.

STUDENT RESPONSIBILITIES / CONDUCT AT PRO BONO PLACEMENT

If a non-profit organization, governmental agency, or licensed attorney doing pro bono work on behalf of the disenfranchised and/or under-represented has accepted the student's offer of volunteer services, the student must fulfill their obligation. The student is expected to perform all assigned tasks in a professional and competent manner. That includes, but is not limited to:

- Dressing in a professional manner;
- Meeting assigned deadlines;
- Showing up to work on time;
- Keeping the supervisor informed of whereabouts and progress of assignment(s);
- Producing a quality work product; and
- Treating all individuals with courtesy and respect.

Students are expected to complete all assignments given to them in a timely and professional manner. Students should ask their supervisors to explain assigned work if they do not understand how to proceed. If written work is required, students are expected to carefully proofread the work to ensure there are no grammatical and/or typographical errors, and to verify cites to make sure that they have not been overruled or otherwise limited.

Students should not disclose information they learn about a case or a client. Florida's Rule of Professional Conduct expressly states that a lawyer and those working for the lawyer may not reveal information relating to representation of a client unless the client consents or the disclosure is otherwise permitted. This confidentiality includes not disclosing or discussing the legal research and drafting a student might be performing for a client. Additionally, students may not subsequently use any material drafted for a client without first obtaining consent. The risks to you and the attorney of revealing confidential information of a client are great. An attorney violating this Disciplinary Rule risks revocation of their license to practice law. A law student violating this rule risks not being licensed. For Florida's complete Rule of Professional Conduct please visit: https://www.floridabar.org/TFB/TFBResources.nsf/Attachments/0A266C6138C4A15685256B29004BD617/\$FILE/RRTFB%20CHAPTER%204.pdf?OpenElement.

Students may not give legal advice, make formal appearances in court, or otherwise engage in the practice of law. However, students are still bound by the Code of Professional Responsibility. Students should take all possible precautions to avoid the unauthorized practice of law and ensure that it is known at all times that they are law students, and not a licensed attorney.

Students should not be working or provide pro bono services to more than one non-profit organization, governmental agency, or licensed attorney doing pro bono work at the same time, unless disclosure is given to both parties in writing, and consent is given by both parties in writing.
